fully staffed. Rebekkah reports no issues with CE Broker. Council members have general questions. [Wheeler drops 12:30p]

- b. Review of Request to Supervise Additional PTA(s) – Tiffany Flieg, PT. Reviewed request to supervise five physical therapy assistants instead of four. Mr. Gaus, Deputy Litigation Counsel, presented the request and had no objection to the Council approving the request. It was noted that if the Board approved the request, the PT Council is required to review the current status of the supervision request every six months under K.A.R. 100-29-16. (Gould, Vequist, carried)
- c. Discussion of PT Council Member Reviewing Reentry to Practice Recommendations. Ms. Vequist has been doing this and is willing to continue. Should there be a back-up person? Will revisit during next PT meeting.

VI. Old Business:

- a. Updates on PT Compact. Warran gives update. Passed in 2021; however, delayed until the FBI approves the process. No questions.
